

a pixie haircut

Grady

I met a lady and she likes them too
We could compete but I just hate to lose
Her mind is crazy as her eyes are blue
I met a lady and she likes them too

I met her just before the Sun went down
Lied in her life on the last bench in town
Her pixie haircut and some stories to tell
I met her just before the Sun went down

Ooooooh
But she wasn't the least bit impressed
I thought she might be
Ooooooh
You couldn't tell us both apart
She's just, she's just just like me
(You know like a dude)

Hey
I met a lady and she likes them too
We could compete but I just hate to lose
Her mind is crazy as her eyes are blue
I met a lady and she likes them too
Oh, I met a lady and she likes them too
