

Javelin

Grady

All at once you took up all the damn space in my mind
And it's been months we fell in and out of touch
But you stayed there all of the time
I opened up the gates and you didn't even try to run away
And I've caused you so much pain that I don't know if these words hold any weight
But you know I'm gonna say them anyway

I love you
I love you
I lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-love... love you

I wrote those first songs
Trying to get you to come
Up the street and into arms
I still have your name wrong in my phone
I still know your shape from head to toe
I've still got a javelin through my chest
And you've still got a face that feels like home
I still feel the same way and it's grown (Oh it's grown)
I wanna water your love, water your love every day and watch it grow
Cause I'd never felt so seen (So)
As I did whenever you would look at me
And I saved the wedding ring
But don't worry, I don't expect anything
We're one year in and that's one thing that hasn't changed

I love you (Love you)
I love you (Love you)
I lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-love... love you
