

Jersey

Grady

Fly in from jersey in a hurry to come stay with me
Tell me your secrets in the morning that I forget by the time we sleep
I get so easily distracted by the fact that you've gotta leave
But you said I love you like I've always got somewhere to be

I said I'm trying, but
I'm probably be lying

I spread myself too thin
Never finish tying up loose ends
When I speak my mind I sound stupid
I don't really know how you do it so well
You will always have a piece of me
It's hard to let you go
But I know

I met a shaman in the garden of Eden this week
Told him my story and he told me pull a card and then we'll see
My limbs are stretched across a valley that my heart's in between (I read the card and) it said let go of what you hold if you want to be free

I said I'm trying, but
I'm probably be lying

I spread myself too thin
Never finish tying up loose ends
When I speak my mind I sound stupid
I don't really know how you do it so well
You will always have a piece of me
It's hard to let you go
But I know

I spread myself too thin
Never finish tying up loose ends
When I speak my mind I sound stupid
I don't really know how you do it so well
You will always have a piece of me
It's hard to let you go
But I know
