

Lemon Pie

Grady

Old whip, hit the road
No print, it's original
I think I'm, falling in love all over again
Bright paint, lemonade, high state, I levitate
When I'm down, it's my pick-me-up
I got a new friend
You told me it's your favorite
And that shit hits different, she told me twice
So damn cute now, isn't it?
I'm good reminiscing, but future so full of

Eyes, looking at my
Adorable slice of lemon pie
Everyone wants a bite
If you'd like, take you for a ride
I'm on the other side and it feels so nice
To see all of these
Eyes, looking at my
Adorable slice of lemon pie
Everyone wants a bite
If you'd like, take you for a ride
I'm on the other side and it feels so nice
To see all of these...

Sweet people smiling when I slow to a stop
The wait is over had to borrow my mom's
Not sure how well you studied my catalog
But that was something I said in a song
Back a couple months ago
I had a dream, now I'm living it
This edition is limited, won't see it twice
Right now things feel infinite
It's like something was missing
Now there's just so many...

Eyes, looking at my
Adorable slice of lemon pie
Everyone wants a bite
If you'd like, take you for a ride
I'm on the other side and it feels so nice
To see all of these
Eyes, looking at my
Adorable slice of lemon pie
Everyone wants a bite
If you'd like, take you for a ride
I'm on the other side and it feels so nice
To see all of these...

(Think I'm falling in love
Again... think I'm falling in love)
(Think I'm falling in love
Again... think I'm falling in love)
Think I'm falling in love

(Think I'm falling in love
Again... think I'm falling in love)
(Think I'm falling in love

Again... think I'm falling in love)
Think I'm falling in love

(Think I'm falling in love
Again... think I'm falling in love)
(Think I'm falling in love
Again... think I'm falling in love)
Think I'm falling in love
