

missed connections

Grady

And now it's time for a part of the show we like to call Missed Connections. For those that might have once caught each other's eye at a cafe, or exchanged glances on a sunny beach, this is where we hope to rekindle that flame. We have Jake on the line, Jake where are you calling from?

Uh, I'm right here.

Alright Jake, and what's your message?

Hey there baby, it's me. This is, this is my show now. And I'm doing this one for you.
