

Really Special

Grady

Is it true love? Have you found it
Or did you screw up
Man, I doubt it
Your room was
So crowded
But you stood out, like a mountain
Elegance is off the charts, I see it
So much of myself in that blonde bomb rocking crocs
I see it

And I think that you're probably bored of
Boys that treat you like you're not a grown up
You're someone it's easy getting older with
I would do your laundry, even fold the shit

I don't think I'm really special
For thinking that you are really special
But I know a good one when I see it
Yeah, I know a good one when I see it, oh
And I'm looking at you

Something feels different
Two dirty plates are in the kitchen
Mm, I'm getting better with the silence
I sleep alone a lot and only kinda mind it
I wanna tell you that I think about it
I wanna tell you that I think about it all the time
All the time

And I think that you're probably bored of
Boys that treat you like you're not a grown up
You're someone it's easy getting older with
I would do your laundry, even fold the shit (Hey!)

I don't think I'm really special
For thinking that you are really special
But I know a good one when I see it
Yeah, I know a good one when I see it, oh
And I'm looking at you

And I think that you're probably bored of
Boys that treat you like you're not a grown up
You're someone it's easy getting older with
I would do your laundry, even fold the shit (Hey!)

I don't think I'm really special
For thinking that you are really special
But I know a good one when I see it

And I'm looking at you
