

Same Dream

Grady

I've been having the same dream
I walk around naked
I don't know what it means

It's getting scary outside
If I brave it now, it's with a knife

But it's not my home and it's not my bed
If I have to go, I won't til there's nothing left

Where do I belong with my ties all slipped?
I'm never really alone, but always am
