

Starting Over Again

Grady

You know I never really meant to hurt you
You know I never meant to make you cry
A little boy could never deserve you
It takes a real man who's ready to fight

And as soon as it rains, I run away. I've got no patience. I'm racing
. Oh baby
Is it cause I'm afraid
I don't wanna change
Maybe someday I'll get there
But till then
I'm starting over again
And again
And again
I'm starting over again
And again

You know I'm not your typical breed
I'm such a lucky little loving machine
I'm not perfect but expect you to be
Oh damn the irony
It's like I'm looking for a reason to leave
I've got to be free

And as soon as it rains, I run away. I've got no patience. I'm racing
. Oh baby
Is it cause I'm afraid
I don't wanna change
Maybe someday I'll get there
But till then
I'm starting over again
And again
And again
I'm starting over again
And again
