

The Last One

Grady

Just told my ex she can kiss my ass
Now I'm on to the next
Oh, things move fast
Lord knows that it won't be the last one, no
I'm out with friends
Had a few good laughs
Now I got this empty whiskey glass
Lord knows that it won't be the last one, no

I swore it'd be the last one, last time
I can't ever seem to make up my damn mind
I was feeling sorry for myself
Til' I found an 80 proof bottle of help
And I drink it down for the aching she caused Prices are paid for her no matter the cause
Just trying to drown out all the pain in my heart
Had to learn and move on from

Just told my ex she can kiss my ass
Now I'm on to the next
Oh, things move fast
Lord knows that it won't be the last one, no
I'm out with friends
Had a few good laughs
Now I got this empty whiskey glass
Lord knows that it won't be the last one, no

Trying my best to handle life without her
Drinking a lot but hey, it's better than powder
Nights on the town rollin' to rough tomorrows
I'm balancing out and reconciling' my sorrows
All of my love, is going down the drain, goin' down the drain
I hate the club, but I gotta drown the pain, gotta drown the pa in
So I

Just told my ex she can kiss my ass
Now I'm on to the next
Oh, things move fast
Lord knows that it won't be the last one, no
I'm out with friends
Had a few good laughs
Now I got this empty whiskey glass
Lord knows that it won't be the last one, no
