

Woah

Grady

Time's not the only thing getting wasted (wasted)
I've been on way too long of a vacation
Probably something you can relate with
I'm getting in the way of myself
I couldn't even tell you what day it is
The dinner table's filled up
She whispers Who pays for this?

Well the company we keep don't want a basic bitch, no
But there's so many of those here
I want to collect up all my fears,
Put them somewhere that no one can see 'em
I look for excuses, I don't see em

But like, woah
Everything is moving a little too quickly
I hope that when I disappear you're gonna miss me
No no no no don't delete the history, no, no
I'm like, woah
Everything is moving a little too quickly
I hope that when I disappear you're gonna miss me
No no no don't delete the history, no, no

I'm like, woah
I prefer a person with their own life (own life)
I wish I didn't flip when my phone died
I wish more girls weren't so clone-like, yeah
Where to start, We like complicating things that shouldn't be hard
Hate the things we're not more than we like the things we are
I don't need to see another broken heart, no
But there's so many of those here
I want to collect up all my fears
Put them somewhere that no one can see em
I look for excuses, I don't see em

But like, woah
Everything is moving a little too quickly
I hope that when I disappear you're gonna miss me
No no no no don't delete the history, no, no
I'm like, woah
Everything is moving a little too quickly
I hope that when I disappear you're gonna miss me
No no no don't delete the history, no, no

I'm like, I could
Blame my, youth and say
It's not my, insides being upside down, down, down
Truth is, we're all kids
Playing with a bunch of emotions
Just trying
To figure it out, we'll figure it out

But like, woah
Everything is moving a little too quickly
I hope that when I disappear you're gonna miss me
No no no no don't delete the history, no, no
I'm like, woah

Everything is moving a little too quickly
I hope that when I disappear you're gonna miss me
No no no don't delete the history, no, no
