

Only You Can Lift Me

Graham Bonnet

The very last thing any man wants to do is live alone
Try to understand I wanna catch a ride back to your home

So if you feel you can won't you
Come help this man
'Cause I'm going right down and my
Head's going 'round gonna
Gonna have to lift me from the ground

Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me

Feeling like a stranger in the middle of this dark and lonely place
Everybody's different but you know in every woman I see your face

So if you feel you can won't you
Come help this man
'Cause I'm going right down and my
Head's going 'round gonna
Gonna have to lift me from the ground

Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me

Won't you come back home
Won't you come back home

So if you feel you can won't you
Come help this man
'Cause I'm going right down and my
Head's going 'round gonna
Gonna have to lift me from the ground

Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me

So if you feel you can won't you
Come help this man
'Cause I'm going right down and my
Head's going 'round gonna
Gonna have to lift me from the ground

Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me
Only you can lift me

Only you can lift me but I'm feeling like a stranger and I'm so low
Only you can lift me when I'm down on my life and I can't go on

Only you can lift a man who needs a little lovin and is on his own
Only you can lift a man who's feeling very low and has got no home
