Graham Colton

Showing for the right time
The blurred lines got you spinning
She says I know you got a girlfriend
Just pretend for a minute
She cut in half a photograph
She wants to fit in
She'll tell you that your girlfriend
Your girlfriend doesn't get it
And she says

I'm alright to hide in your DMs
She make you feel so right like you did last weekend
Make you believe that, don't believe it when she says, she says
I'm alright to hide in your DMs

One time, you don't reply
Cold silence
She says, "I know I got the message
The suspense is so violent"
Still run into you out at night
Say hello to your girlfriend
And say hello to your girlfriend
She'll take you all the way
I'll take you all the way
She'll go off the deep end
She says

I'm alright to hide in your DMs
She make you feel so right like you did last weekend
Make you believe that, don't believe it when she says, she says
I'm alright to hide in your DMs

She wanna keep it casual, wants to stay all night
Tell you that it's over but never say goodbye
She'll be a long weekend, never turn out right
When you say it's over, she'll never say goodbye
Goodbye
Don't wanna say goodbye
Goodbye

I'm alright to hide in your DMs
She make you feel so right like you did last weekend
Make you believe that, don't believe it when she says, she says
I'm alright to hide in your DMs
I'm alright to hide in your DMs
