

Graceland

Graham Colton

It's been thirty days
Since I've been without you
And it feels okay
Until I think about you
Cause you don't call anymore
There's no shoulder to fall on anymore

So tell me you'll be on your way
And tell me you're coming back someday
And maybe I'll make it on my own
Maybe you'll never know
Just tell me how far to go to graceland

What I really need
Is the closure you won't give to me
I still have my regrets
I got you out of my heart
You're still stuck in my head

So tell me you'll be on your way
And tell me you're coming back someday
And maybe I'll make it on my own
Maybe you'll never know
Just tell me how far to go to graceland
Oh, to graceland

Now it's been a year
Never thought that I could think so clear
But I saw you today
But I fell short of all I wanted to say
Cause damn your words and damn your ways
And maybe I'll never know
Is it too far to go to graceland?
