

My Resignation

Graham Colton

I lie awake at night
You're always by my side
I try to fall asleep
You're holding on to me, oh
The night, it lasts so long
I don't want to wake you up, oh
With every move I make
I'm planning my escape

Yeah, I don't know the words to say
Damn, it's a bad situation
Yeah, I'm running out of time
According to my calculations

I watch the cars roll by
I dream of a life outside
You keep me wide awake
And that's your big mistake

Yeah, you don't get a reason why
I'm not taking my medication
Yeah, it's a matter of time
I'm guilty by association
Yeah, however I behave
You get the standing ovation
Yeah, I made up my mind
I'm handing in my resignation
Yeah
