

Wide Open Inside

Graham Colton

Get back
You could be hurt standing this close
Then react
Don't say anything cause no one really knows
How it ends or begins
Or who wrote this story
And I don't mind anymore
What you said that tore me

Wide open inside
I'm so wide open inside

They ask me
"Is there one single regret?"
But I'm looking back
And I wouldn't move one hair on your head
I miss you to kiss you
To see you often
Or until another lifetime
If you want me to wait, I will

And I'll be wide open inside
I'm so wide open inside

Could I be right?
Should I be wrong?
Now, it's just one more time
To wake and see you gone
Should I stay a while?
Should I say goodnight?
I'm just so tired
Of these lullabyes

And I'll be wide open inside
I'm so wide open inside
God, I am wide, god, I am wide
God, I am wide, god, I am wide
