

Eternal

Graham Coxon

Oh, wall of gold
Shine out to the dark blue sea
No open door
No home for me
Take me within
To live for a thousand years
Then we can be as one

Downed by gun and bomb
There we will be eternal

Now that we are bound together
Soul and spectre
Find the meaning of forever
Give me a thousand lifetimes

My oh, Eldritch Cove
Paradise within
Held close by you
My life begins
Then torn away
Dragged deeper down
With the dead and gone

Drowned by love and song
There we will be eternal

Now that we are bound together
Soul and spectre
Find the meaning of forever
Give me a thousand lifetimes

Waves of dread
Descend in the night
Fear there can never be Enough time
I promise you my love
All the days we have left
To live like they're our last
'Til my dying breath

Now that we are bound together
Soul and spectre
Find the meaning of forever
Give me a thousand lifetimes
