

Girl Of The Endless Night

Graham Coxon

She's the stream, never seen
In the forest of green
She's the sand through your hand
In the town so free

I thought it me
The man that you need
Rolling and laughing there
Now I can see
They all were me
Searching the nowhere now
Searching the nowhere now

I thought it me
The man that you need
Howling and laughing there
Now I can see
It always was me
Searching the everywhere
Searching the everywhere

I can barely recognise
That girl
All those lost and endless nights
Meant nothing you know
And all that wasted time
With broken people

A sight to see
But don't touch me alone again
Just lie with me
Don't let me be alone again
Now that I've seen
What I just can't un-see anymore

Say goodbye to the girl of the endless night
Say goodbye to that girl
Say goodbye to the girl of the endless night
Goodbye to that girl
