

Kill Me Again

Graham Coxon

Go to the silver moon
Find the power there to see you through
Dark afternoon
Ecstatic magic night

Take me to your brightest sun
Hold me fast beneath your hand
I hang like a bird
Above your seas and land

Love burns
Never denied
Come inside
Turn this tide

It's not in the words you're singing
It's not in the things you do
We fight for our lives
Beneath the sun and moon

I went to the silver moon
Asked for power there to see me through
Dark afternoon
Ecstatic magic night

Take me to your brightest sun
Hold me fast 'till the day is done
You hang like a bird
Above my sea and land

It's not in the words you're singing
It's not in the things you do
We fight for our lives
Beneath the sun and moon

Love burns
Never denied
Pull me down
Turn this tide

I run through your fingers laughing
I fall through your eyes and then
I don't care if I'm dying
Kill me again

I run through your fingers laughing
I fall through your eyes and then
I don't care if I'm dying
Kill me again

Kill me again
Kill me again
