

Try To Find Me

Graham Nash

I'm in here, with a lonely light, but maybe you can see me.
Oh, and I'm in here, with my mind on fire.
Do your best and try to find me.
Under me, there's a lovely life that screams for a little daylight.
Oh, and through my eyes, I can see for sure
That my soul shines on. so try to find me.
'cause I'm trapped in the web of a dark night.
Won't you please be my bridge into daylight?
When I know I am loved, I am all right. so try to find me.
So try to find me.
'cause I'm trapped in the web of a dark night.
Won't you please be my bridge into daylight?
When I know I am loved, I am all right. so try to find me.
Oh, hear my heart. it's the same as yours,
But it beats with a distant thunder. oh and I'm still in here
With my heart so pure. I can say no more.
But won't you unlock my door,
And try to find me.
