GRAHAM

I got a whole lot of problems stackin' up
I don't cry about it
I'm whippin' the Toyota like a wide body
If I sell the catalog, I'm goin' private
Yeah, I'm up like thirty thousand, I'm on autopilot
Whole lot of problems stackin' up
I don't cry about it
Uh, they been sellin' lies, but I never bought it
I could see the signs, so I'm stayin' quiet
Yeah, I'm up like thirty thousand, I'm on autopilot

Uh-uh-uh-uh-uh, yeah, I know it (Yeah)
I'm not the type to call it out, but know I'm quick to notice
I never thought to use a tragedy in my promotions (Nah)
First, you made the video, and then you thought to post it
Like uh-uh-uh-uh-uh, yeah, I'm over it
Me and a label just ain't somethin' that'll coexist
Like, why would I give a portion of my ownership?
When we both know it's 'bout the cut, and then you phone it in
I need a cabin in the woods, I got no signal
Ayy, best if you and I just kept it simple
Yeah, I'm prioritizin' on my mental
I promise none of this was accidental
Yeah, like, if I lost it all
Give it six months, I'ma build it back up (Back up)
Uh, I ain't goin' down, I'm standin' tall
It don't really matter, I'ma keep my head up

I got a whole lot of problems stackin' up
I don't cry about it
I'm whippin' the Toyota like a wide body

Yeah, I'm up like thirty thousand, I'm on autopilot

Like, if I make a dollar, I'ma make it honest (Okay)
I could've done it different just to make a profit (Alright)
I know a lot of people who just ain't about it (No)
Some of the ones you think is solid, man, they ain't solid
Yeah, it's a disguise (Disguise) online (Online)
I remember how you were before the dollar signs
Ayy, catch me off the grid, I'm sick of quantize, yeah, quantize

I got a whole lot of problems stackin' up
I don't cry about it
I'm whippin' the Toyota like a wide body
If I sell the catalog, I'm goin' private
