Before The End

GRAHAM

I wish I would've taken notes
'Cause I forget the things I need the most
And I've been swimmin' in these questions
And I been strugglin' to stay afloat
Could you call one time? I need it
I need somethin' to believe in
Could you send some sign? I'm pleadin'

Do people look down from the stars at night?
There's a lot of things that they know
Please tell me which way's wrong or right
'Cause I don't know which way to go
Like will my soul grow wings and fly
Or will it lay six feet below?
Please come down and help me see the light

I remember the good days and the bad days
And the old chair you reclined in
Good days and the sunrays
And the time lookin' at the skyline
Could someone rewind it? If I'm bein' honest
I know, oh-oh
Please help me see the light again
Please help me be myself again
I wish I knew it was the end
Before the end begins

Do people look down from the stars at night? (At night)
There's a lot of things that they know (That they know, oh-oh)
Please tell me which way's wrong or right (Oh-oh)
'Cause I don't know which way to go (I don't know which way to go)
Like will my soul grow wings and fly (Fly)
Or will it lay six feet below? (Feet below)
Please come down and help me see the light
