

Breathe

GRAHAM

Woke up, I can't help but notice
That nothing's as it seems
And they said a storm's coming on the ocean
But I'm away at sea

And all my failures, all my flaws
People seem to see them all
And no one helps 'cause no one cares
When you're suffering

I can't breathe
When the fire's burning all the air out of the room
I can't breathe
The world's a liar, it'll do anything to break you in two
I can't breathe
I can't breathe

All my old friends went to different places
But do they think 'bout me?
And I tried living in the moment
But that's not for me

And all my failures, all my flaws
People seem to see them all
And no one helps 'cause no one cares
When you're suffering

I can't breathe
When the fire's burning all the air out of the room
I can't breathe
The world's a liar, it'll do anything to break you in two
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
