

Expensive Taste

GRAHAM

Yeah, it's greener on the other side
If you want another bride
Sayin' that you got a type
Somethin' that you'll never find, ayo
Another life, you gon' want another try
Somethin' like the other night
Lookin' for another high, ayo

Expensive taste like movie
Eyes only lookin' for the beauty
They don't wanna go if they knew me
Maybe miss another opportunity

Need an Uber just to pick you up on the way, oh
The security's gon' make it hard for you to lay low
Switch yourself with someone else
You'd do it if they say so
Actin' like you haven't seen you all in with the halo
Halo, yeah, it's sad it's not on me
I know what I want, I'm just waiting for my calling
Yeah, you got a longing to make it with somebody
But lately, you've been stalling
No, lately, you've been stalling

Yeah, it's greener on the other side
If you want another bride
Sayin' that you got a type
Somethin' that you'll never find, ayo
Another life, you gon' want another try
Somethin' like the other night
Lookin' for another high, ayo

Expensive taste like movie
Eyes only lookin' for the beauty
They don't wanna go if they knew me
Maybe miss another opportunity

The right one, right one
Waiting for the right one, right one
But you won't ever find one, find one
'Cause you lookin' at the wrong ones, wrong one (Yeah, wrong, wrong one)
Passed up on the one that give you everything
Passed on the one that give you everything you need
Passed up 'cause you didn't see in on the screen
On the TV

Yeah, it's greener on the other side
If you want another bride
Sayin' that you got a type
Somethin' that you'll never find, ayo
Another life, you gon' want another try
Somethin' like the other night
Lookin' for another high, ayo

Expensive taste like movie
Eyes only lookin' for the beauty
They don't wanna go if they knew me

Maybe miss another opportunity
