

in too deep

GRAHAM

Aye, rock the counterfeit
Thought I had the real thing
Thought I found a fit
I'm not talking Cartier
Hard to see the brighter side
When you in the grey (no, no, no)

(Uh) Guess I got in too deep
Telling myself that she into me
Thought that we were talking on the same page, yeah
But I was burning up an old flame, yeah (no, no, no)

I was checking in you were checking out, out
I was living it you were dying out, out
I was shooting my shot
Guess I should have aimed better, oh, no

Yeah, you were missing my calls and I just had to assume That it just wasn't your fault
That you'd be hitting me soon
Baby I was so naive

(Uh) Guess I got in too deep
Telling myself that she into me
Thought that we were talking on the same page, yeah
But I was burning up an old flame, yeah

(Uh) Guess I got in too deep
Giving my all but it's still too cheap
Closing all my tabs on the home page, yeah
Guess we're leaving it a cold case, yeah (oh no)

11 a.m. feel the same as a late night
Making up stories in my head like a play write
And it ain't right, I gotta take five
It feel like I been getting stranded on the way side

New look, renovate
Gotta get you anyway
Life giving lemons, I just gotta make lemonade
80 down the interstate, I hate being second place
Thinking 'bout you everyday

(Uh) Guess I got in too deep
Telling myself that she into me
Thought that we were talking on the same page, yeah
But I was burning up an old flame, yeah

(Uh) Guess I got in too deep
Giving my all but it's still too cheap
Closing all my tabs on the home page, yeah
Guess we're leaving it a cold case, yeah
