

Indecisive

GRAHAM

I can't go to sleep if we been fightin'
I hate the moments that we sit in total silence
And I got feelings, but I know I shouldn't hide them
Guess I never really figured out the timin'
I need to see you, but it's easier to stay home
And I can't help but wonder if you feel the same, though
Yeah, I go back and forth, I know I recognize it
But I just can't make up my mind, I'm indecisive
I'm indecisive

Yeah, like, "Which one, which one?" (Which one?)
I'm scared if I do what's right, then I might end up doin' what
's wrong (What's wrong)
Like you need some reassurance, but I took too long (Too long)
Yeah, one moment I'm right here, then the next I'm gone (Gone)
Yeah, I bet you've had enough, know I need to speed it up
I hate that I lead you on, I can't give you what you want (Oh)
Yeah, I know that's worth nothin' (Yeah)
And maybe I should take a little ownership (Okay)
I've always been the type to overthink (Yeah)
And I know it's not fair, not fair, yeah, I know it isn't
Wish I could tell you I was closin' in, yeah

I can't go to sleep if we been fightin'
I hate the moments that we sit in total silence
And I got feelings, but I know I shouldn't hide them
Guess I never really figured out the timin'
I need to see you, but it's easier to stay home
And I can't help but wonder if you feel the same, though
And I go back and forth, I know I recognize it
But I just can't make up my mind, I'm indecisive
I'm indecisive

Yeah, yeah, I'm indecisive (Oh)
Yeah, which one, which one, baby, I don't know
I'm indecisive
