

Mailman

GRAHAM

Is there a mailman in heaven?
'Cause I need to send a message
In denial when I hear that dial tone
Yeah, left with possessions from the one whom I got questions
Been a while since I haven't felt alone

And I, I see your face when I'm dreamin'
Holdin' on to these feelings I can't let go
I'm sendin' up a message
All the way to heaven
I think about you more than you could know
So if you get a second to meet me in the present
I'd give anything to hold you close
Hold you close

Talkin' all night long 'cause you got my banter (It's just you and me)
Yeah, still do the same things but you never answer (Like where
'd you go?)
If I could have another wish I would call your name
Never thought that I'd miss those simple days
I'm tossed by the waves 'cause I lost my anchor (Woah)

And I, I see your face when I'm dreamin' (Woah, woah)
Holdin' on to these feelings I can't let go
I'm sendin' up a message
All the way to heaven
I think about you more than you could know
So if you get a second to meet me in the present
I'd give anything to hold you close
Hold you close
