

Nobody Else

GRAHAM

Yeah, can't hold onto my thoughts, yeah, I had to let go
Can't be someone I'm not when I'm at her low
I don't need nobody else, okay
I don't need nobody else, okay
I don't need nobody's help, no way

I just need a little control, uh
This time, maybe, I hope
Myself, where do I grow?
Tell me where my mind go, need help
'Cause I hold on to the ones that I lose
And I hold on to protect my views
And I feel better when I don't wanna choose today
You wanna hold me, can't let them control me
Things I hold so closely
Things that don't reform me, no

'Cause I can't take the pain
And I won't run away
'Cause I, oh baby, I-I-I

Yeah, can't hold onto my thoughts, yeah, I had to let go
Can't be someone I'm not when I'm at her low
I don't need nobody else, okay
I don't need nobody else, okay
I don't need nobody's help, no way

I don't need nobody else, okay
I don't need nobody else, okay
I don't need nobody else, okay
'Cause I can't take the pain
And I won't run away
'Cause I, oh baby, I-I-I
