

Not Here, Not Yet

GRAHAM

I've had more at twenty-two than what I thought I'd have by forty
And I don't want to look back on all the time that I spent poorly
Will the moments last or will they fade away?
And it's hard not to worry this'll be the end of my story

I'm not here, not yet, no, no
I got a long, long way to go
I'm not here, not yet, no, oh
I know the best is yet to show
I'm not here, not yet, no, oh
With every last breath I know that we got a lot left
I'm not here, not yet, oh
I'm not here, not yet

I know that the old me would never guess
We hit all the goals that we never did set
And some days I felt guilty for how I felt
'Cause I don't want to waste these cards that I'm dealt
I'm talking 'bout the long nights in the dorm room
Turn to a hundred thousand people that support you
Only thing I know

I'm not here, not yet, no, no
I got a long, long way to go
I'm not here, not yet, no, oh
I know the best is yet to show
I'm not here, not yet, no, oh
With every last breath I know that we got a lot left
I'm not here, not yet, oh
I'm not here, not yet

(I'm not here, not yet, oh)
(I'm not here, not yet, oh oh)
(I'm not here, not yet,)
(I'm not here, not yet, oh oh)
I'm not here, not yet, oh oh
