

Obvious

GRAHAM

Let's make this obvious
'Cause I don't want you secret, want an audience
'Cause I've been waitin' for this my whole life
Yeah, don't wanna hide

Let's make this obvious
Let's make this obvious
Let's make this obvious
Let's make this obvious

I don't wanna hide, baby, I'm sorry
When it feels right, then we go the wrong way
Keep you real tight, baby, like the cards played
You know I'ma bet on this like a parlay
And I know that you don't want attention
And I know that you wanna stay hidden
And I know that you wanna keep distance

No, I can't keep it silent, I can't keep this quiet
Oh, I feel that fire, feel it deep inside
When you hold me, when you told me I could be your one and only
There ain't no need to do this all alone

Let's make this obvious (Oh, no)
'Cause I don't want you secret, want an audience (Yes, I do)
'Cause I've been waitin' for this my whole life (No, no)
Don't wanna hide

Let's make this obvious
Let's make this obvious
Let's make this obvious
Let's make this obvious
