

truth or dare

GRAHAM

If it's truth or dare, I'll take my chances
You ask questions, I want answers
I can't stand the thought of ever seeing you with someone better

Why do I question if you care?
Wanna make some progress that's not there
Wanna break a promise, that's not fair
You wanna break your promise

Yeah, uh, I don't want closure, I wanna close it off
I won't blow it off
I thought I knew a lot
But you don't know it all, I see it
What's the cost?
No, baby, what's the odds?
Love you, not bein' off
You change your mood with every season
Ticked off, feelin' this room
I ain't even sayin' nothin', but she wants some Baby, she can't hide nothin'
I see all the clues
Turn a conversation to a lose-lose
Hold your phone but not my hand
Chase your goals without a plan
It gets sold, I don't understand
But you don't understand

If it's truth or dare, I'll take my chances
You ask questions, I want answers
I can't stand the thought of ever seeing you with someone better

Why do I question if you care?
Wanna make some progress that's not there
Wanna break a promise, that's not fair
You wanna break your promise

Never better than late, don't waste today
You was takin' all my time that I can't replace
Never better to stay than make a change
I was thinkin' what's next while I'm wide awake
Can't miss this if you dismiss it
I don't wanna fit in
You don't wanna listen
I don't wanna give in to the opposition
You make decisions and division

If it's truth or dare, I'll take my chances
You ask questions, I want answers
I can't stand the thought of ever seeing you with someone better
