

40509

Graillknights

Tear out their hearts and burn them straight
The legions of the dark will seal your fate
The maws are filled with half-chewed flesh
They eat your brain and feast on you
Before they finally vanish into haze
They're immortal beasts

The power awakens in me
The force - our only guarantee

40509 - behold thy mighty glory
Photon tape divine - behold thy fallen brothers
Furious death machine
To me my Knights - we break the line
Tape them quick and clean
Tonight we save the 40509

Along the city's neon walls
They skulk around to execute their quest
They're coursed to roam this world for good but we're still here to banish them
Our skills are widely known to be the best
It's time to feel our rage

To live, to prosper here in peace
To feel, to love and finally decease

40509 - behold thy mighty glory
Photon tape divine - behold thy fallen brothers
Furious death machine
To me my Knights - we break the line
Tape them quick and clean
Tonight we save the 40509

Keep on fighting for more than you've ever dare to achieve
Keep on searching and soon it is right within your reach

The power awakens in me
The force - our only guarantee

40509 - behold thy mighty glory
Photon tape divine - behold thy fallen brothers
Furious death machine
To me my Knights - we break the line
Tape them quick and clean
Tonight we save the 40509 - behold thy mighty glory
Photon tape divine - behold thy fallen brothers
Furious death machine
To me my Knights - we break the line
Tape them quick and clean
Tonight we save the 40509
