

Cybone One

Grailknights

Beware the rise of system 666
Skull's cybernetic death machine
It's the fatal order of Cybone One
To wipe all targets off its screen

In the darkness of night
There's a flickering light
Upon an obscure scene of creation
A spawn of hell ascends to life

Still the breath of death
Strikes with great might
Fearing neither fate nor abomination
While craving for the Grail it leaves the hall

Leaves the hall
Leaves the hall
For the final fight
For the fate of the world

Beware the rise of system 666
Skull's cybernetic death machine
It's the fatal order of Cybone One
To wipe all targets off its screen

Defying rain and storm
Always remember I'm your master
The only reason you were born
Roam the lands and bring the Grail back to me

Leave none to live - Affirmative
Go forth my chrome child
See to it
Evil must prevail - Forever
We know death too well and won't retreat

Won't retreat
Won't retreat
For the final fight
For the fate of the world

Beware the rise of system 666
Skull's cybernetic death machine
It's the fatal order of Cybone One
To wipe all targets off its screen

Beware the rise of system 666
Skull's cybernetic death machine
It's the fatal order of Cybone One
To wipe all targets off its screen

Target clear - Waiting for further orders
Ready - Go

Beware the rise
Beware the rise of system 666
Skull's cybernetic death machine

It's the fatal order of Cybone One
To wipe all targets off its screen
