

Enter the iron door to my palace
Home sweet home to rats and worms
A joyful feast accompanied by maggots
Praise my lord - the king of germs

No one will survive for many weeks
Asylum elsewhere all forgotten poor souls seek

One day we all end up in grailskull asylum
Where the wind howls a tune of madness through our dark cold cell
Our shattered dreams are trapped in grailskull asylum
Where at midnight death greets us with a wacky smile

Now be my noble guest forever
In my realm we shall dwell
My inner demon casts a shadow
My brightest heaven is your darkest hell

No one will survive for many weeks
Asylum elsewhere all forgotten poor souls seek

One day we all end up in grailskull asylum
Where the wind howls a tune of madness through our dark cold cell
Our shattered dreams are trapped in grailskull asylum
Where at midnight death greets us with a wacky smile

The moon is my only comrade
My pillow made of damp air
A shroud of sorrow shall be my blanket
Eternal nights of despair

One day we all end up in grailskull asylum
Where the wind howls a tune of madness through our dark cold cell
Our shattered dreams are trapped in grailskull asylum
Where at midnight death greets us with a wacky smile
