

March of the Skeletons

Grailknights

March of the skeletons
March of the living dead
Symphony of cracks and creaks
Your darkest fears are back

A creaking and cracking
A shaking and rattling
The skeletons keep marching to the sound of the drums
Shivering shadows that died on the gallows
The army of skull is marauding the land

Ragtag march
We will not disappoint thee
Ran faster - bring the chalice back to me
The skeletons keep rising out of their shallow graves
Like little girls they're crying
Now taunt your enemy

March of the skeletons
March of the living dead
Symphony of cracks and creaks
Your darkest fears are back

Tonight the earth shall crumble
As time's about to stumble
Under the clashing of our chains
And the stench of our remains
We are the epitome of evil
Hellish forms beyond retrieval
With streaming rotten hair
Enslaved demons of despair

March of the skeletons
March of the living dead
Symphony of cracks and creaks
Your darkest fears are back

Flee fast - see the skeletons are marching
Be quick - it's the only way
Flee fast - the bloodshedding has started
And you are gonna be their first prey
