reconquer the chalice of ultimate power
They have come to rule the planet, to rule the universe and to determinate o ur destiny
They are the Grailknights
By the power of the Grail
They have the POWAAA!!!

Noble the blood, his name reflects the aim even forces of nature shiver in pain
He can only win, a legend is born
Hold out for a hero called Sovereign Storm

Into the sky his mighty cannon blasts out
Gigantic in size it leaves no shadows of doubt
Out of the heights hitting antagonists hard evil Skull your dismissed - Duncan tears you apart

Battlechoir - you are the ones to lead our heroes home
Battlechoir - you are the force where ever we may roam
Feel the POWAAA!!! - it will always guide us
SUPER POWAAA!!! - is the wind beneath our capes
POWAAA!!! - to end all darkness in our hearts
By the power of the Grail
Our quest will never fail

Cranium approaching, young god in disguise
His name is a war cry foretelling demise
A powerful spell, a hostile demand
He's rising to heavens, Count in Command

Bold like an eagle, a man made of steel
Heroic and valiant, his power is real
Dauntless his heart, a traveller in time
Bow your head for Sir Optimus Prime Oh, that's me

Battlechoir - you are the ones to lead our heroes home
Battlechoir - you are the force where ever we may roam
Feel the POWAAA!!! - it will always guide us
SUPER POWAAA!!! - is the wind beneath our capes
POWAAA!!! - to end all darkness in our hearts
Feel the POWAAA!!! - it will always guide us
SUPER POWAAA!!! - is the wind beneath our capes
POWAAA!!! - to end all darkness in our hearts
By the power of the Grail

Grailknights, we need you and the mighty power of the Holy Grail
Can you help us?
We will always help ya!
They will always help us!
We will always save ya!
They will always save us!
And your friends!

Drumcules rising out of walls made of sound
His dynamite punch sparks off a fatal rebound

His chest is a shield and his arms are a mace
The strongest of all with his courage and grace

Together we fight, a union as one
Without you we're nothing and none shall be done
We light the fire and you keep it burn
Skull, watch out! - here's a lesson to learn

Feel the POWAA!!! - it will always guide us
SUPER POWAA!!! - is the wind beneath our capes
POWAA!!! - to end all darkness in our hearts
Feel the POWAA!!! - it will always guide us
SUPER POWAA!!! - is the wind beneath our capes
POWAA!!! - to end all darkness in our hearts
By the power of the Grail

As time passed the power of the Grail grew stronger and lightened our hearts
The evil forces were still lurking in the dark and yet many adventures to come
