

Drown

Grammatrain

my spirits take me to another place i never have to know my real face in my brown bag i know i cannot die my sour breath to you will testify hey man do you wanna drown while your bottle drinks you down (i hear you say) save me, save me
hey man do you wanna drown my treasured poison, you control my days you spin my life while i forget my name i'm in a prison of my own demise see no escaping through my red-lined eyes
