

Sex in a Box

Granian

Lay your mind on the pillowcase
I'm on the line I paint a picture that you can't erase
All of the things that you know that I want to do to you

I take it to the back
I want to push it underneath
I try to fall between the cracks
I want to find some inner peace
I tell you that I'm sorry for this
I'm getting by
Well I did what I did
I couldn't take it any longer
The way you bring me down
Such a bitter surrender
All this love we've rediscovered
Has got me feeling all alright

If I tried everything in the book to make you forget
If I said all those mistakes that I made were in the past
If I could take it back I would do this all again
If I could I would rewind

Sit back and relax
Keep track of the facts
As I gaze in the maze
Of your eyes they've been laced
With some kind of drug
That keeps me from looking away
I did what I did
I swear I didn't mean it anything that I said
If I could have you back for one day
All the things that I would do and say

If I tried everything in the book to make you forget
If I said all those mistakes that I made were in the past
If I could take it back I would do this all again
If I could I would

I'd tell you all the things that I think you'd want to hear
Before you disappear

I tried everything in the book to make you forget
I took those mistakes I made and put them in the past
If I could take it back, I would do this all again
If I could I would rewind
