

Like A Lover

Grant-Lee Phillips

Of all the fishes in the sea
So ghostly white and glittering
Nobody's ever stole my heart
And took it down to the ocean dark
Nobody's ever meant that much to me

Judge and my jury
Hear my plea
No woman's ever held the reigns on me
No warden's ever held that key
Not a soul on cell block three
Nobody but her come to set me free

I rattle on for miles
Put it on a page
You let me tap away
And I'll rattle on for days and days and days

Nobody hits home the way ya do
Nobody makes sense out of my blues
Nobody make me laugh that hard
Or hurts me so 'till I see stars
Nobody's holds a candle up to you

Nobody knows best to how to shine my crown
Or the ease it takes to knock it down
Nobody's ever been that true
None of the flunkeys on the midnight crew
I found something there that I'm afraid lose

I rattle on for miles
Put it on a page
You watch me type away
And I'll rattle on for days and days and days

Nobody's gonna piss me off so bad
It's a certain power that you have Never one just to just recoil
'Fore ya bring my blood to a boil

Nobody' like a lover make you feel so sad
Nobody' like a lover
Nobody' like a lover make ya feel so sad
