

Love's A Mystery

Grant-Lee Phillips

Another sunny day wash
Soaking up the radar
Antennas on the garage
Whispers on the airwaves
Robin to the Batcave
Nearly cracked the crime wave

And Love's a mystery to unwind
She holds a key to every crime

Trace the paces backward
To the garden , they were...
Just a pair of jail birds
Didn't take 'em no time
Made a run for state line
Passion pays the law no mind

And Love's a mystery to unwind
She holds a clue to every crime

Another sunny day rut
'Round the bungalow hut
I done beat the pavement blind
High above Cahuenga
Where the stars entangle
Life and death
They mingle arm and arm

And Love's a mystery to unwind
She holds a key to every crime
And Love's a mystery to unwind
She holds a clue to every crime
Another sunny day wash
Another sunny day
