

Return To Love

Grant-Lee Phillips

Suns burn away, starlight exploding
There will come a day when you return to love
Love, love, love, love, love, love
Souls tear away, swallowed by oceans
Underneath the waves you return to love
Love, love, love, love, love, love
Return to the open, return to the stars
The infinite moment, the warmth of the heart
Love, love, love, love, love, love
