Runaway

Grant-Lee Phillips

Gutter trickle, bombast
A gunpowder wind
Wanna' let it all sink in
Like a rain collecting
I held on to you
Even when you begged me not to

Can't ya see I'm all bound up
A million knots down in my gut
Well I feel I've had enough, enough
I just wanna' run away
Run, run away
Run, run away
Run, run away

And I can make it happen
I'm magic and all
See me conjuring my downfall
Oh the gates are closin' in
Swallowin' the key
How am I to know you love me
Love me

Can't ya see I'm all bound up
A million knots down in my gut
Well I feel I've had enough, enough
I just wanna' run away
Run, run away yea
Run, run away

Kill the pain
Kill the shame
Wanna' feel nothin' at all

Run, run away
Run, run away
Run, run away
Run, run away
