Brown-Eyed Woman

Grateful Dead

Gone are the days when the ox fall down Take up the yoke and plow the fiends around Gone are the days when the ladies said' "Please Gentle Jack Jones won't you come to me."

Brown-eyed women and red grenadine The bottle was dusty but the liquor was clean Sound of the thunder with the rain pourin' down And it looks like the old man's gettin' on

1929 when he stepped to the bar, drank to the dregs of the whiskey jar 1930 when the wall caved in, he made his way selling red-eyed gin

Brown-eyed women and red grenadine The bottle was dusty but the liquor was clean Sound of the thunder with the rain pourin' down And it looks like the old man's gettin' on

Delilah Jones was the mother of twins Two times over and the rest were sins Raised eight boys, only I turned bad Didn't get the lickin's that the other ones had

Brown-eyed women and red grenadine The bottle was dusty but the liquor was clean Sound of the thunder with the rain pourin' down And it looks like the old man's gettin' on

Tumble down shack on Big Foot country Snowed so hard that the roof caved in Delilah Jones went to meet her God And the old man never was the same again

Daddy made whiskey and he made it well Cost two dollars and it burned like hell I cut hick'ry just to fire the still Drink down a bottle and be ready to kill

Brown-eyed women and red grenadine The bottle was dusty but the liquor was clean Sound of the thunder with the rain pourin' down And it looks like the old man's gettin' on

Gone are the days when the ox fall down Take up the yoke and plow the fiends around Gone are the days when the ladies said' "Please Gentle Jack Jones won't you come to me."
