Mama Tried

Grateful Dead

The first I remember knowin was that lonesome whistle blowin And a youngins dream of growin up to ride.

On a freight train leavin town, not knowin where I was bound No one could steer me right, but mama tried.

Was the only rebel child from a family meek and mild Mama seemed to know what lay in store
In spite of all my sunday learnin
For the bad I kept on turnin and mama couldnt hold me anymore.

And I turned 21 in prison, doin life without parole No one could steer me right, but mama tried, mama tried Mama tried to raise me better, but her pleadin I denied That leaves no one but me to blame cause mama tried.

Dear old daddy rest his soul, left my mom a heavy load She tried so very hard to fill his shoes Workin hours without rest, wanted me to have the best Oh she tried to raise me right, but I refused.

And I turned 21 in prison, doin life without parole No one could steer me right, but mama tried, mama tried Mama tried to raise me better, but her pleadin I denied That leaves no one but me to blame cause mama tried.
