

Don't Bring Me Down

Grave Digger

You naughty girl, so sharp and dry
Don't fill yourself with foolish pride
You've broken my heart, you've broken my soul, you cut me
Now it's a nightmare, I'm going mad
You are so evil, you are so bad
Please let me go, please let me run out of these chains

Destroyer of life, woah
I'm ready to strike
I'll find a way to treat you right
The girl with a demon's smile

Don't bring me down, a cry for freedom
Don't bring me down, my dear
Don't bring me down, times are changing
Don't bring me down, my love

I'm looking for love, I feel so crazy
Now it's time to say goodbye
The sun is shining but the night's so black and I feel the pain
Could be the end of a dream of mine
I can't believe it, all the time
Now it's over, now it's real, you're a fucking liar

Destroyer of life, woah
I'm ready to strike
I'll find a way to treat you right
The girl with a demon's smile

Don't bring me down, a cry for freedom
Don't bring me down, my dear
Don't bring me down, times are changing
Don't bring me down, my love

Don't bring me down, a cry for freedom
Don't bring me down, my dear
Don't bring me down, times are changing
Don't bring me down, my love

Don't bring me down, a cry for freedom
Don't bring me down, my dear
Don't bring me down, times are changing
Don't bring me down, my love
