

Freedom

Grave Digger

Once I met a man
Fighting for resistance
A man with a heart
Strong as steel
From deep in the highlands
He came to survive
Thousands followed him
To fight for their rights

Never give up, never retreat
Never deny in what you believe

Freedom - is well worth a fighting
Freedom - swords high in the sky
Freedom - is well worth a dying
Scream out loud the battle cry

His sword is a legend
Killed fifty in a row
In blood and anger
At Stirling Bridge
But the liar was not far away
Betrayed him to his enemies
In London town they found him guilty
Hanged drawn quartered

Never give up, never retreat
Never deny in what you believe

Freedom - is well worth a fighting
Freedom - swords high in the sky
Freedom - is well worth a dying
Scream out loud the battle cry

Freedom - is well worth a fighting
Freedom - swords high in the sky
Freedom - is well worth a dying
Scream out loud the battle cry
Freedom - is well worth a fighting
Freedom - swords high in the sky
Freedom - is well worth a dying
Scream out loud the battle cry
