

Riders Of Doom

Grave Digger

Beneath the blood moon's glow
Four horsemen they rise
Infernal guardians
With piercing eyes

Born of ancient legends
Forged in blazing heat
They ride as one
An unstoppable fleet

Embrace the unknown
Where mysteries entwine
A deadly journey
Where souls redefine

Through the haunted forest
Where the lost souls loom
Beware of the terror
Fear the riders of doom

Thunderous hooves they break the night
Hope is a dying flame
Welcome to the inferno
A symphony of pain
