Six battles I've lost in the fields of fight Six times I've failed for freedom's right many were slain for crown and the king Six times he tried to spin the web Six times he failed at the silver thread My orphaned land is lying in the sand

The wind howled louder Fire had died down I'm lying on my bed With the spider around

Spider - spider What have you done Spider - spider The battle has begun

His courage and skill brought back the will For my return at Bannockburn We'll never be slaves up to our graves

The wind howled louder Fire had died down I'm lying on my bed With the spider around

Spider - spider
What have you done
Spider - spider
The battle has begun
Spider - spider
What have you done
Spider - spider
The battle has been won
