

Stand Up and Rock

Grave Digger

Another boring evening where nothing's going on then suddenly the phone rings could this mean time for fun we take off to the Palais that's where the action is everybody's waiting for the show to begin

The band is really rocking the crowd roars out for more that's unaffected feeling from kids of rock 'n' roll

Stand up and rock

When lights dim down we feel it our heroes are in town the tension mounts they're on stage we'll never be alone we get just what we wanted the music's straight and loud the temperature is rising the air vibrates the sound

A late night rock invasion yes we were born to rock we're living for the moment and we'll never give it up tomorrow doesn't matter we'll take it as it comes as long as we can stand up we'll rock the whole night long
