

End of Time

Graveworm

A soulless ghost torn apart by chains of hell
It's still the same old song
Create to hide the way to lose myself
In this cruel children's game
Out of sight, tearing of the mask of dead
Hear the verses, feel the words
The evil forces dreams the world away
Till the end of time

Beyond our way
I lost your silence
The horror spread within
All hope is lost again
Beneath the flames
As I hear the bloodshed cries

Terrors beyond the way of dark
Dead to humans for thousand of years
Dimension lost - the point of no return
As the world goes down

Enclose another abyss ground
Is that the way you want to die
Don't let the pain crawl into your brain
But when I go straight to hell
Buried beneath the sea of rage
My soul is floating through clouds
The blood will flow to sweep me away
It will never be the same

Into your eyes

Fall from grace on our last crusade
Rise to hell - the labyrinth of deep within
Beneath the stars - see the watching eyes
Your god is dead - awaits the coming race
Your god is dead

God the almighty - time to leave my mind
My soul lost in hell - the dark ghouls arrived
The lies of your faith, the lies of human beings
I feel their presence vanishing to ground
No fear of the dead, no fear of my sleep
To hear and suffer my presence

Enclose another abyss ground
Is that the way you want to die
Don't let the pain crawl into your brain
But when I go straight to hell
Buried beneath the sea of rage
My soul is floating through clouds
The blood will flow to sweep me away
It will never be the same
