

Vengeance Is Sworn

Graveworm

The mighty horde
With swords and shields
For vengeance they ride
They fight the lives of
Innocent souls
For kingdom and might
Draw the blood
Crush their life's
The enemy shall pay
Fire and light, enemies of kind
Silence before the storm

Shall bring the end,
To kill the line
Faithful servants of God
Breaking down, worship insane
To end the battle of child
Lost in world, lost in time
Time has come to an end
All we know is what they know
Making sure we are blind

Vengeance is sworn
The world will burn
Terror controlled
Through malicious world
Call upon the dead
Warriors from the black will rise
Prophets of deceased
Surrounded by a field

Vengeance is sworn
Passions in blood
Sweeping with it
Across the fields they blow
Wait without fear
Walk the bloodsoiled ground
No mercy will shown
Vengeance is sworn

Clouds of blood, covers the night
Day turns into night
Destroy the battle, fear the resistance
Sacrifice their souls
Corpses of fate, centuries of hate
Surrounds the human minds
Pride and glory, fight for the kind
There is no turning back

Engrave the fate, magic words
No god will help to die
Vengeance in fear, silence of mankind
Headless bodies around
Fire and light, last words I cry
Sleep in a pool of blood
Pain and death, love and peace
Now the false will pay
